ABOUT ME

Hello! :) I study Visual Arts and I'm a mentor at Club de Chicas Programadoras, teaching HTML and CSS. (Buenos Aires)

I was awarded a scholarship at Acámica to study Full Stack Web Development. I am studying UX / UI designer at Coderhouse. This year I started taking my first steps as a Freelance UI Designer and Web Designer. I have command of Adobe CC, knowledge in Design Thinking, Research UX and User Centered Design, intermediate level of English and study French on my own.

I like videogames, tech and cats!
